

We're very upset at the prospect of large media corporations gaining even greater control of media outlets. Please don't change the laws that prevent this. In fact, there should be laws providing more diversification!